

Board Development Workshops September 2016

NDANO's Board Development Workshops with Carter McNamara are designed for CEOs/executive directors and board members of nonprofits of all sizes and missions. They include the following components:

1. Pre/Post Board Assessment Tool

Use an online assessment tool to evaluate your board's strengths, challenges and opportunities at the beginning of this workshop. Then take the assessment six months later to evaluate your progress.

2. In-Person Training Sessions

Learn strategies to build a stronger board. For the CEO/executive director, board chair and board members.

Sept. 21 – Minot, Comfort Inn

Sept. 26 – Fargo, Bremer Bank

Sept. 22 – Bismarck, Ramada Hotel

Sept. 27 – Grand Forks, C'mon Inn

Training Session A

Noon-2:45 p.m. "Building Blocks for Successful Nonprofit Boards" (for CEOs and board chairs)

Enhance your board chair/CEO partnership by participating together to explore board roles, responsibilities and best practices; maximizing the board-CEO relationship; and staff support for board development.

Training Session B

3-6 p.m. "Bringing Your Board to the Next Level" (for CEOs and all board members)

Board members join the board chair and CEO to review common board challenges, along with a vision for a healthy board. Learn how to ensure active board committees and useful board meetings, along with practical procedures for improving your board and training board members not in attendance.

3. Phone Support Sessions

Pose your governance questions and challenges in this bi-weekly discussion for two months following the in-person training to get answers that will help you move your board to the next level.

PRESENTER

A native of North Dakota, Carter McNamara, MBA, PhD, of Authenticity Consulting, is one of the nation's top experts about nonprofit boards.
